Roanoke, Va., July 25.—By superior stick work and better all-around playing, Richmond won from Roanoke to-day, by the score of 6 to 3. From a local standpoint it was a sad exhibition. The Tigers did not seem able to get together, playing in a loose-jointed sort of fashion. For six innings Cefalu was in the box, but Draper, a new man from Keystone, W. Va., twirled for the remainder of the game, and in the ninth was badly treated, three hits, two sacrifices and three runs being the sum total of his downfall. Baker's slapping of Newton's fly into Burke's hands was the feature of the game. Score:

Richmond, Va., July 25.—Petersburg broke its hoodoo this afternoon by defeating the Hill Climbers in a game marked by errorless fielding and sensational catches by Clunk and Hamilton, which robbed the visitors of at least two runs. Petersburg started the run-making in the first inning, when singles by Boone and McFarland, the first two men up, a sacrifice by Bowen and Kirkpatrick's single netted two earned runs. Both sides were retired in regular order until the fifth inning, when Lynchburg tied the score on a single by D. Smith, a base on balls by Lloyd and Hoffman's two-bagger. In the seventh Putnam singled, went to second on a passed ball and scored on Howells' wild throw to first. Clunk beating out the throw, Lloyd followed suit on Kunkle's sacrifice, throwing the ball into the bleachers, and both Clunk and Kunkle scored on Hannaford's single. The visitors were never able to rally, although they made two hits and had two men on bases in the eighth, but good work by Peterburg infielders and a great catch by Hamilton of Howells' long drive to right center cut off all hopes of their scoring. ### Game Mare, at 12 to 1, Finishes First in Knickerbocker Handicap.

Empire City Race Track, N. Y., July 25.—Schoolmarm, at 12 to 1, proved a big surprise when she won the Knickerbocker handicap, six furlongs, from a good class of sprinters here to-day. She was practically neglected in the betting. Follie Levy led to the stretch, when Scoville put Schoolmarm under a drive, and the mare responded gamely and won by a nose. Summaries:

First race—Two-year-old maidens, $400 added, five and a half furlongs—Just (7 to 2) first, Leah (1 to 10) second, Hogan (7 to 2) third. Time, 1:01 1/5.

Second race—Selling, three-year-olds and up, $400 added, six furlongs—Danfield (5 to 2) first, Roseau (5 to 1) second, Big Stick (3 to 1) third. Time, 1:15.

Third race—Selling, handicap, three-year-olds and up, $600 added, mile and twenty yards—Hampton Court (1 to 10) first, Harvey P. (7 to 1) second, Black Mate (7 to 2) third. Time, 1:16.

Fourth race—the Knickerbocker handicap, three-year-olds, $1,500, six furlongs—Schoolmarm (12 to 1) first, Follie Levy (5 to 1) second, Cheryl (6 to 1) third. Time, 1:12.

Fifth race—Three-year-olds, $400 added, five and a half furlongs—Pleasant (4 to 1) first, Planter (6 to 5) second, Heretic (1 to 5) third. Time, 1:06 2/5.

Sixth race—Four-year-olds and up, $500 added, one mile and a furlong, $500 added—Montgomery (2 to 1) first, Had News (1 to 1) second, Nethermost (12 to 1) third. Time, 1:53 2/5.

YACHT RACE POSTPONED.

Contest for Seawanhauk Cup Will Take Place To-Day.

Manchester, Mass., July 25.—The weather proved a foe to the Seawanhauk cup, but there was about twenty minutes of the contest in which the conditions were fair, and then the defender, Massachusetts, of the Manchester Yacht Club, showed superiority in windward work, over the challenger, St. Lawrence, of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club.

The yachts started on a twelve-mile race, three times around a triangle, and had nearly accomplished the second circuit when a couple of thunder showers drenched the windward side, left the yachts flapping around, and the Massachusetts a mile ahead of the St. Lawrence. The yacht will try again to-morrow to race over the same course.

HOODOOS BROKEN AND GOOBERS WIN

Hill Climbers Lose Errorless Game by Score of 5 to 2.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Petersburg, Va., July 25.—Petersburg broke its hoodoo this afternoon by defeating the Hill Climbers in a game marked by errorless fielding and sensational catches by Clunk and Hamilton, which robbed the visitors of at least two runs.

Petersburg started the run-making in the first inning, when singles by Boone and McFarland, the first two men up, a sacrifice by Bowen and Kirkpatrick's single netted two earned runs.

Both sides were retired in regular order until the fifth inning, when Lynchburg tied the score on a single by D. Smith, a base on balls by Lloyd and Hoffman's two-bagger.

In the seventh Putnam singled, went to second on a passed ball and scored on Howells' wild throw to first. Clunk beating out the throw, Lloyd followed suit on Kunkle's sacrifice, throwing the ball into the bleachers, and both Clunk and Kunkle scored on Hannaford's single.

The visitors were never able to rally, although they made two hits and had two men on bases in the eighth, but good work by Peterburg infielders and a great catch by Hamilton of Howells' long drive to right center cut off all hopes of their scoring.

Score: Petersburg, 5; Hill Climbers, 2. Score by innings: 1-0, 2-0, 3-0, 4-0, 5-0, 6-0, 7-0, 8-0, 9-0.

BURNS DENIES STATEMENT.

Declines That Match With Langford Was Called Off.

Seattle, Wash., July 25.—Tommy Burns, who is in Seattle, denies the statement published in New York that the match between Burns and Sam Langford, scheduled to take place in September, had been called off.

"I would fight Johnson for 35 percent of the gross receipts," said Burns to-day. "I figured that Johnson, being the champion, would get about 40 percent. Then I wired McIntosh that I wanted 40 percent of the receipts to meet Langford, but that I was still willing to tackle Johnson for 35 percent of the gate."

TARS WIN GAME IN EASY MANNER

Red Sox Lack Usual Ginger, and Lose by Score of 5 to 1.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Danville, Va., July 25.—The Red Sox seemed to have lost their usual ginger here this afternoon, while Clarke's Tars seemed in splendid trim and took the game in an easy manner from Griffin's pennant aspirants, to the tune of 5 to 1. Gaston, a new acquisition recently secured from the Cotton States League, twirled for Danville, and did well, considering the support given him by his teammates.

Shoemaker, for the visitors, proved an enigma to the locals, who narrowly escaped a shutout. Danville's lone run was made by Priest. In the fourth Munson got a hit and scored on Reggy's three-bagger to extremes right, the latter scoring on a fielder's choice. In the fifth Bonner walked, Murdock got a hit, and both scored on Jackson's two-bagger. In the ninth Reggy got a hit, was sacrificed by Johnson, stole third, and came in on Bush's hit. The score:

the game in an easy manner from Griffin's pennant aspirants, to the tune of 5 to 1. Gaston, a new acquisition recently secured from the Cotton States League, twirled for Danville, and did well, considering the support given him by his teammates.

CULPEPER LOST GAME TO HYATTSVILLE BALL TEAM

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Culpeper, Va., July 25.—A great game of ball was played on the Culpeper diamond this afternoon between Culpeper and Hyattsville, Md., the result of which was a 3 to 1 victory for the home team. The feature of the game was the pitching of Howard White for Culpeper.

What Did You Say the Score Was?

"Ah! wore the cause. Ah! rue the day, that caused your death my gallant gray," or words to that effect and tone, Sir Walter Scott was heard to moan. And so with plaintive wails and weeks with strenuous work, with hearts aching and limbs a-jerk, the city Sions strove for fame and honors in the national game. With paunch overshadowing thigh and shin, with muscles lax and lung-power thin, they curvetted and pranced about resolved to make the bleachers shout. And then, when paunch and shin should be in smoothest relative, they sailed the ocean, crossed the bay, Ah! wore the chain! Ah! rue the day, and coming through the misty damp were captured, taken into camp. The bard that should have chanted praise of councilman baseball ways has taken to the uncut woods and canned his stock of lauding goods. The harp that was to give his calls he hocked beneath three gilded balls. The tale that should have brought glad smiles, the councilman heart now lies. And so with heartfelt sigh I say: "Ah! wore the game. Ah! rue the day."

DARKNESS ENDS GAME IN SIXTH

Boston Americans Defeat St. Louis by Score of 4 to 2.

PELTLY IS WILD ON MOUND

Lack of Control of Pitcher Causes Visitors to Lose.

Boston, Mass., July 25.—Thunder clouds made the playing field so dark that to-day's game between Boston and St. Louis was called after the sixth inning, ending with the score of 4 to 2 in favor of the local team. Peltly's wildness was mainly responsible for his team's defeat. The score:

Victory for Fayetteville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fayetteville, N. C., July 25.—Fayetteville started the new series with a well earned victory, winning in the tenth, on Hartley's two-bagger. Cantwell's out and Muller's single after a bases-clearing double by Hartley tied the score in the ninth. Mayer fanned twelve batters, and held the Railroaders to five widely scattered hits. The game was the prettiest played here.

OFF DAY FOR HIGHLANDERS

New York, July 25.—The Highlanders were both outbatted and outfielded to-day, and were beaten, 8 to 4, the defeat costing the New York team second place in the championship race. The score:
